(Brooklyn, NY) – August 23, 2007 – Forest City Ratner Companies and the Nets present the “Josh Boone Basketball Clinic,” August 27th – 31st, at St. Francis College in Brooklyn Heights. Boone and the seasoned coaches from Basketball City will help the kids hone their hoops skills with drills and games. Prizes and giveaways are being provided by Keyspan. The camp is free for Brooklyn kids, ages 8 to 14 years old. Children can only attend one clinic and space is limited, so reserve your slot early to hit the hardwood with the Nets up-and-coming Power Forward.

Maryland-native Josh Boone was the Nets #1 pick in the 2006 NBA Draft and is considered a presence in the paint on both ends of the floor. Before joining the Nets, Boone spent 3 successful seasons with the high-powered University of Connecticut Huskies. While at UCONN, he was Big East Defensive Player of the Year as a sophomore. As a freshman, he was named to the Big East Rookie Team and helped lead the Huskies to the 2004 National Championship.

This clinic is a part of Forest City Ratner Companies’ commitment not only to build in Brooklyn, but also to build a better Brooklyn.
