

NETS BASKETBALL

FORESTCITYRATNER
C O M P A N I E S

Contact: Barry Baum, 718-923-8464

November 16, 2005

NETS VISIT BROOKLYN CHURCH TO SERVE LUNCH AND DISTRIBUTE THANKSGIVING FEAST TO NEEDY FAMILIES

EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ – Nets players and coaches will dish out an early Thanksgiving meal at the Christian Cultural Center, a Brooklyn-based church, to over 120 families in-need on Thursday, November 17 at 1:30 p.m. The Center is located at 12020 Flatlands Avenue, between Pennsylvania and Louisiana Avenues, in the Canarsie section of the borough.

The Christian Cultural Center, led by Rev. A.R. Bernard, has 24,000 members, the largest congregation in New York State, which includes Nets captain Jason Kidd. As part of the event, Nets players will serve hot turkey lunches with trimmings from Brooklyn's renowned restaurant, Jive Turkey. In addition, the team will be packing and handing out frozen turkeys and various side dishes to the families for next Thursday's holiday.

WHO: Nets players and coaches

WHAT: Early Thanksgiving lunch for local families

WHEN: Thursday, November 17, 1:30 p.m.

WHERE: Christian Cultural Center, 12020 Flatlands Avenue, between Pennsylvania and Louisiana Avenues, Brooklyn, NY.

###